THANKSGIVING IN PETERSBURG

The Burning of the Mortgage of the Second Baptist Church.

SCARCITY OF TURKEYS

Tobacco and Peanuts Are Coming Into the City in Large Quantities.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) PETERSBURG, VA., November 24,-Thanksgiving Day was quite generally, though quietly, observed in Petersburg to-day. Religious services were held at many of the churches, the Federal offices and freight depots were closed, the municipal departments did no business, and mony manufacturing firms gave half clasts went over to Richmond this morn ing to attend the game between Virginia and Carolina. The Tarheels have many friends in this city, and though Virginia University has many alumni in Petersburg, the Carolina sympathizers seemed to predominate, certainly as far as enthusiasm is concerned. The burning of the mortgage that had been carried by the Second Baptist Church been carried by the Second Baptist Church for the past ten years was the crowning feature of the semi-centennial services which were held in that church Sunday and last night. The paper was burned by little Miss May Alley, a descendant of the woman in whose house the church was organized fifty years ago. The services closed last night. They were of a very interesting character and largely matended throughout. Lost night the capacity of the church was insufficient for the number that desired to gain admission.

Tobacco and peanu(s) are coming into the city in large quantities. One prominent, dealer reported to-day that he was selling peahuts as fast as they were brought in, and that he is now selling from one to five carloads a day. The market is very active, and many farmers seem willing to sell their crop at eighty-five cents, which is the present price for Spanish. Some well informed dealers believe that Spanish peanuts will bring ninety cents before the first of the year. There was a scarcity of turkeys for Thanksgiving in Petersburg. They are scarcer and higher than ever known before.

A Thanksgiving german will be given in Library Hall to-morrow night, and it promises to be a brilliant event. A german will be given at the Country Club Monday night.

Asthma and Hay Fever Gured.

The truly marvelous cures of Asthme which are being effected by Dr. Schiffmann's Asthma Cure certainly call for notice.

Rev. G. L. Taylor, of Washburn, Ill., says: "Bome 7 years ago my wife used several packages of your Asthma Cure, which resulted in a permanent oure,"

A Hay Fever sufferer writes: "I have been a sufferer from Hay Fever for over 20 years, and it seemed harder every year. The first night I used your Asthma Cure, I was greatly relieved. It cured my cough after using a few times, I shall recommend it to all sufferers of Hay Fever." Mrs. Martha Simerson, Laingsburg, Mich.

A PLASTER BALL

A Pretty Romance in Connection With a Present-Day Marriage.

MISS MARY M'NEAL A BRIDE

When a Little Girl an Admirer Gave Her Present to be Opened on Her Wedding Day.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

RADFORD, VA., November 24.-Connected with the marriage of Miss Mary McNeal, a beautiful young woman of this city, to-day, is connected a pretty little romance, which began at Culpeper when she was eight years old.

Dr. Shackleford, a wealthy gentleman became very fond of the maiden, and taught her to recite "The Stingy Man" for a church entertainment. When she finished the recitation he arone and presented her with a plastor-of-Paris ball, bidding her not to open it until her wedding day. The years alloped away. The little girl grew to maidenhood, and the little white ball kept its secret well until to-day, when it was opened at dinner in the presence of the family and the bridai party. The bonnie bride dashed in two and received as a bridal present from her admirer of the long ago a handsome diamond.

THE MARRIAGE. When she finished the recitation he arose

The wedding march was played by Mrs. B. S. Jones.
Following the ushers, Hon. Willam S. Sayers, of Hinton, W. Va.; Mr. William St. Price, of Hinton, a brother of the groom, and Messrs. R. E. McNeal and Wallace McNeal, brothers of the bride, came the maid of honor, Miss Gwendolyn Bladen, of Roanoke. She wore point d'esprit over taffeta and carried bride's roses.

came the maid of honor, Miss Gwendolyn Bladen, of Roanoke. She wore point d'esprit over taffeta and carried bride's roses.

The bride, who is a handsome brunette, was gowned in blue broadcloth, with blue traveling hat to match, and carried bride's roses. She entered with her father, Mr. W. A. McNeal, and was met at the altar rail by the bridegroom, who, with his brother. Mr. Tom Price, of Hinton, W. Va., as best man, entered by the side aisle.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. N. Woodward, paster of Bourne Memorial, and Mr. E. S. Jones sang "Because I Love You." Immediatry after the marriage Mr. and the strength of the marriage Mr. and the strength of the side aisle party with the side and points. Texes and Kanasa. Louis and points are the side of the side and points of the bride. The parlor was beautifully decorated in pink and green, pink chrysanthemums and evergreens being used. The color scheme in the dining room was pink and white. The table was decorated in pink and white satin ribbons. The souvenirs were a pair of hearts tied with pink and white baby ribbon, on which was done in India ink a smilling Cupid. A delightful menu was served.

A large number of very handsime wedding presents were received.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. MoNeal, is strikingly shadsome and possessed of much vivacity She has taught in the public schools and has taken an active part in church is at the promise a native of Giles, but for the last three years has lived in Charleston, W. For some time past, a bridge has been badly needed over the Rapidan River at Ely's Ford, and after conference Cuipeper county agreed to pay eight-twelfths of the cost of building the bridge and Spotsylvania agreed to pay three-twelfths. This left only one twelfth inprovided for, and representatives from the two counties called upon Fredericksburg to pay that amount, as this city is largely benefited by trade from that section. The City Council, by unanimous vote, appropriated the necessary amount, 458.

"When my little boy was about three months old his head broke out with a rash, which was very lichy and rau considerable watery fluid. We tried everything we could, but he got worse all the time till it spread to his arms, legs, and then to his entire body, and he got so bad that he came near dying. The rash would tich so that he would scratch till the blood ran, and a thin yellowish stuff would be all over his pillow in the morning. I had to put mittens on his hands to keep him from tearing his skin around his wrists. He got so weak and run down that he took fainting spells like we would think him dying. He was almost a skeleton and his little hands were thin like claws.

"He was bad about eight months when we tried Cuticura Remedies. I had not laid him down in his cradie in the daytime for a long time. He had got so that he just slept in our arms all the time. I washed him with Cuticura Soap and put on one application of Cuticura Olntment and he was so soothed that I put him in the cradle. You don't know how glad I felt when he felt better. It took one box of Cuticura Olntment, pretty near one cake of Cuticura Soap, and sbout helf a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, to cure. I think our little boy would have died only for the Cuticura Remedies, and I shall always remain a firm friend of them."

JUDGE ORDER GUARDS TO SHOOT TO KILL

Negro Highwaymen Arrested and Held in Jail Under

(Special to The Thires-Dispatch.)

PULASKI, VA., Nov. 24.—The two negroes who held up and robbed two section men here lest night were captured this morning about six miles west of town in the mountains by a white man named Wolfe and a colored man named Grubb. When brought to town the negroes confessed to the robbery and also shooting at the officers who chased them last night. Both are young.

Circuit Judge Jackson, who is now holding court here, will summon a special grand jury to-morrow and try the negroes immediately, and the chances are good for a double hanging here. This hold-up was one of the boldest crimes ever enacted here. One of the darkles gave his name as Fisher Parum, of Dinwiddle county, and the other gave his as Jesse Boulden, of Lynchburs.

There is strong talk of lynching them, and Judge Jackson has instructed the sheriff to place guards at the jail, armed with shotguns, with instructions to sifoot to kill iff any attempt was made to get the prisoners.
